

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
Not Enacted	Alabama  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast
Not Enacted	Alaska  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	West
Not Enacted	Arizona  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southwest
Not Enacted	Arkansas  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
Enacted	California  California has an active community choice aggregation program.  Establishing Policies  • AB 117 (2002)  • SB 790 (2011)	West		2002
⊠ In- Progress	Colorado  Colorado has an in-progress community choice aggregation program  Establishing Policies  • HB21-1269	West		2021
Not Enacted	Connecticut  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Northeast
Not Enacted	Delaware  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
Not Enacted	Florida  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast
Not Enacted	Georgia  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast
Not Enacted	Hawai'i  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	West
Not Enacted	Idaho  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	West

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
Enacted	Illinois Illinois has an active community choice aggregation program. Establishing Policies  • HB 316 (2009)	Midwest		2009
Not Enacted	Indiana  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest
Not Enacted	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest
Not Enacted	Kansas  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
Not Enacted	Kentucky  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast
Not Enacted	Louisiana  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast
Not Enacted	Maine  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Northeast
Enacted	Maryland  Maryland has an active community choice aggregation program.  Establishing Policies  • HB 768 (2021)	Southeast		2021

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
Enacted	Massachusetts  Massachusetts has an active community choice aggregation program.  Establishing Policies  • Acts of 1997 Chapter 164 (1997)	Northeast		1997
Not Enacted	Michigan  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest
Not Enacted	Minnesota  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest
Not Enacted	Mississippi  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
Not Enacted	Missouri  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest
Not Enacted	Montana  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	West
Not Enacted	Nebraska  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest
Not Enacted	Nevada  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	West

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
Enacted	New Hampshire  New Hampshire has an active community choice aggregation program.  Establishing Policies  • SB 286 (2019)	Northeast		2019
Enacted	New Jersey  New Jersey has an active community choice aggregation program.  Establishing Policies  • A2165 (2003)	Northeast		2003
Not Enacted	New Mexico  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southwest
Enacted	New York  New York has an active community choice aggregation program.  Establishing Policies  • Case 14-M-0224 (2014)	Northeast		2014
Not Enacted	North Carolina  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
Not Enacted	North Dakota  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving	Midwest transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.  Ohio
Enacted	Ohio has an active community choice aggregation program.  Establishing Policies  • SB 3 (1999)  • SB 221 (2008)	Midwest		1999
Not Enacted	Oklahoma  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southwest
Not Enacted	Oregon  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	West

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
Not Enacted	Pennsylvania  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Northeast
Enacted	Rhode Island Rhode Island has an active community choice aggregation program.  Establishing Policies  HB 7786 (2002) HB 5536 (2017) SB 877 (2017)	Northeast		2002
Not Enacted	South Carolina  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast
Not Enacted	South Dakota  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
Not Enacted	Tennessee  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast
Not Enacted	Texas  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southwest
Not Enacted	Utah  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	West
Not Enacted	Vermont  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Northeast

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
Enacted	Virginia  Virginia has an active community choice aggregation program.  Establishing Policies  • SB 1269 (1999)	Southeast		1999
Not Enacted	Washington  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	West
Not Enacted	West Virginia  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast
Not Enacted	Wisconsin  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
	Wyoming
Not Enacted	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving	West

Powered by

Climate XChange

transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.

