	The Alaska Oil and Gas Conservation Act prohibits "waste" of oil and natural gas, which is defined as the release, burning, or escape into the open air of gas, from a well producing oil or gas, unless authorized by the Alaska Oil and Gas Conservation Commission. The state allows producers to flare gas for safety reasons, during maintenance periods, and in order to test new oil and gas wells Establishing Policies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • AK Stat § 31.05.170
