

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
 Not Enacted	Alabama	Southeast
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	Alaska	West
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	Arizona	Southwest
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	Arkansas	Southeast
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
 Enacted	California  California has an active community choice aggregation program.	West	Establishing Policies	2002
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• AB 117 (2002)</li> <li>• SB 790 (2011)</li> </ul>
 Not Enacted	Colorado  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	West
 Not Enacted	Connecticut  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Northeast
 Not Enacted	Delaware  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
 Not Enacted	Florida	Southeast
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
	Georgia	Southeast
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	Hawai'i	West
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	Idaho	West
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
 Enacted	Illinois  Illinois has an active community choice aggregation program.  Establishing Policies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• HB 316 (2009)</li> </ul>	Midwest		2009
 Not Enacted	Indiana  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest
 Not Enacted	Iowa  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest
 Not Enacted	Kansas  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
 Not Enacted	Kentucky	Southeast	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
	Louisiana		Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
	Maine	Northeast	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Enacted	Maryland	Southeast	Maryland has an active community choice aggregation program.	2021
	Establishing Policies		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• HB 768 (2021)</li> </ul>

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
 Enacted	Massachusetts  Massachusetts has an active community choice aggregation program.  Establishing Policies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Acts of 1997 Chapter 164 (1997)</li> </ul>	Northeast		1997
 Not Enacted	Michigan  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest
 Not Enacted	Minnesota  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest
 Not Enacted	Mississippi  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
 Not Enacted	Missouri	Midwest
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	Montana	West
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	Nebraska	Midwest
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	Nevada	West
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
 Enacted	New Hampshire	Northeast	Establishing Policies	2019
	New Hampshire has an active community choice aggregation program. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>SB 286 (2019)</li> </ul>
 Enacted	New Jersey	Northeast	Establishing Policies	2003
	New Jersey has an active community choice aggregation program. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A2165 (2003)</li> </ul>
 Not Enacted	New Mexico	Southwest
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Enacted	New York	Northeast	Establishing Policies	2014
	New York has an active community choice aggregation program. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Case 14-M-0224 (2014)</li> </ul>
 Not Enacted	North Carolina	Southeast
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
 Not Enacted	North Dakota  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest
 Enacted	Ohio  Ohio has an active community choice aggregation program.  Establishing Policies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• SB 3 (1999)</li> <li>• SB 221 (2008)</li> </ul>	Midwest		1999
 Not Enacted	Oklahoma  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southwest
 Not Enacted	Oregon  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	West

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
 Not Enacted	Pennsylvania  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Northeast
 Enacted	Rhode Island  Rhode Island has an active community choice aggregation program.	Northeast		2002
	Establishing Policies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• HB 7786 (2002)</li> <li>• HB 5536 (2017)</li> <li>• SB 877 (2017)</li> </ul>
 Not Enacted	South Carolina  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Southeast
 Not Enacted	South Dakota  Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.	Midwest

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
 Not Enacted	Tennessee	Southeast
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	Texas	Southwest
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	Utah	West
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	Vermont	Northeast
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
 Enacted	Virginia	Southeast		1999
	Virginia has an active community choice aggregation program. Establishing Policies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• SB 1269 (1999)</li> </ul>
 Not Enacted	Washington	West
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	West Virginia	Southeast
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.
 Not Enacted	Wisconsin	Midwest
	Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.

STATUS	STATE	REGION	COMPONENTS	YEAR ENACTED
--------	-------	--------	------------	--------------

Wyoming

Not Enacted

Community choice aggregation allows local governments to procure power on behalf of their residents, businesses, and municipal accounts from an alternative supplier while still receiving transmission and distribution service from their existing utility provider.

West